

Professional Qualifications

Devon D. Cortright, P.E., LEED AP

Name: Devon D. Cortright, P.E., LEED AP
Vice President Mechanical Engineering

Profession: Professional Mechanical Engineer

Registration: Registered Professional Engineer in South Carolina, Georgia, North Carolina, and Arkansas

Education: B.S. in Mechanical Engineering
University of South Florida, Tampa (1981)

Qualifications: Mr. Cortright is responsible for the design and specification of industrial air conditioning and ventilation, plumbing, dust collection, industrial exhaust, process utility piping systems, estimating design budgets, and developing project construction estimates.

Key Professional Experiences:

- H2L Consulting Engineers Vice President Mechanical Engineering
- Rust Engineers, Greenville, SC, Consulting Engineers. Project engineer in the process technologies group.
- W. E. Gilbert & Associates, Greenville, SC, Consulting Architects and Engineers. Project engineer in the mechanical design group.
- Michelin Tire Corporation, Greenville, SC, Project engineer
- Monsanto Industrial Chemicals, Nitro, WV, Process engineer

Community and Professional:

- American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air Conditioning Engineers
- Greenville Chapter Board of Governors
- Greenville Chapter President 2010 to 2011
- International Code Council
- American Society of Plumbing Engineers