

Professional Qualifications

Richard M. Gregory, P.E.

- Name: Richard M. Gregory, P.E.
Vice President Electrical
- Profession: Professional Electrical Engineer
- Registration: Registered Professional Engineer in South Carolina and Thirty-Six other States
- Education: B.S. in Electrical Engineering, The Citadel, (1971)
- Qualifications: In addition to serving as Project Electrical Engineer on numerous industrial and commercial projects, he has provided assistance to insurers and owners involving electrical failures of buildings. Mr. Gregory has sized and specified standby generators for waste water treatment plants, water treatment plants, and several commercial facilities.
- Key Professional Experiences:
- H2L Consulting Engineers
Electrical Department Manager with responsibilities for overall project management, coordination, analyses and training of individuals within the department.
 - Rick Gregory and Associates, Inc. (Greenville, SC)
Owner and senior electrical engineer for a six-person electrical engineering design firm.
 - Fluor Daniel, (Greenville, SC)
Responsibilities included Senior Design Engineer on many small-to-medium industrial projects; Department Manager for a group of Project Engineers; and Project Design Manager on several industrial projects.
 - J.E. Serrine Company/CRSS Architects, Inc.(Greenville, SC)
Responsibilities included Senior Electrical Engineer for several commercial and military projects, overseeing all aspects of electrical design of the projects.
 - Daniel Engineering, (Greenville, SC)
Electrical designer supporting many small industrial projects. Also had responsibility of Field Engineer and electrical material take-offs.
- Community and Professional: Member of Greenville County Construction Board of Appeals